PS 1039
.A37 T7
1888
Copy 1

Andresen

A TRUSTING HEART.

A TRUSTING HEART.

BY

THOMAS F. ANDRESEN.

33

DEDICATED BY PERMISSION TO

REV. J. HENRY SMITH, D. D.

4
22467
FL

GREENSBORO, N. C.:
THOMAS BROTHERS, JOB PRINTERS
1888.

PS1039
.A37T7
1888

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1888,
By THOMAS F. ANDRESEN,
in the office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington.

D. M. B. 8 Aug 18

A TRUSTING HEART.

Ever His word to guide thee
Over life's waters wide;
Ever His spirit beside thee
At morning or eventide.

O

C

Ever a hope for to-morrow,
  Though you in silence weep:
Ever a source where you borrow
  Renewed strength as in sleep.

Ever blue skies above thee,
Peace and content within;
Ever a fond heart to love thee,
'Midst all this worldly din.

Ever a foot on the portal,
  Near by His throne on high;
Faith in a life immortal,
  And ever prepared to die.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
0 015 785 309 0